Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means for enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worried out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof that Green s August Flower will make them as free from disease as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint is the direct cause of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Billiousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the Head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles 10 cents. Try it. *

The Reason Why.

My reason for buying Cooking and other Stoves and Parlor Grates at the Albion Iron Works is because I can purchase them there at prices much less than they can be imported for. The quality of the goods is equal, if not superior, to the imported article, and by buying them I get my money back, if not directly I do so indirectly, because the money I pay for an Albion Stove is kept in the country. Do not let unprincipled dealers sell you the imported article when you can help to save the country by buying Stoves, &c., at the Albion Iron Works, Store street, or of any respectable dealer. Examine for yourself and take no other. *

BOSCHEE'S GERMAN SYRUP can now be purchased right at home; it is the most successful preperation ever introduced to our people. It works like a charm in all cases of Consumption, Pneumonia, Hemorrhages, Asthma, severe Coughs, Croup, and all other Throat and Lung Diseases. No person has ever used this medicine without getting immediate relief, yet there are a great many poor, suffering, skeptical persons going about our streets with a suspicious cough, and the voice of consumption coming from their lungs, that will not try it. If you die, it is your own fault, as you can go to your Druggist ....and get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it; three doses will relieve any case. Regular size only 75 cts. *

Blank Book Manufactory and Book Bindery.

Paper ruled to any pattern. Tickets Receipts, etc., numbered and perforated. Charts and maps mounted. The best classes of modern machinery employed. R. T. WILLIAMS, Government street, entrance through Messrs. Hibben & Co's store. *

No. 11 KEARNEY STREET, SAN FRANCISCO.

DR. SPINNEY, well known as the founder of the Montreal (C. E.) Medical Institute, and late Proprietor of the SPINNEYVILLE INFIRMARY would most respectfully inform his patients and the afflicted generally, that he still continues to treat chronic and nervous diseases with unparalleled success.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,

COME AND BE HEALED!

It matters not what you troubles may be, come and let the Doctor examine your case. It will cost you nothing for consultation, so please call and satisfy yourselves whether the Doctor understands your case. If he can cure you he will tell you so; if not, he will tell you that, for he will not undertake a case unless he is confident of effecting a cure.

Parties at a distance wishing treatment, by sending $25 and a minute description of their troubles will receive in return a full course of treatment securely packed so as not to excite curiosity.

DR. SPINNEY will guarantee to forfeit Five Hundred Dollars for every case of any kind or character which he undertakes and fails to cure.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE

—EFFECTED BY—

California Elastic Truss!

CALIFORNIA ELASTIC TRUSS CO., W. J. Horne Proprietor—Dear Sir: I feel that I owe it to you and to humanity to write the fact that I have been SUBSTANTIALLY CURED of a bad case of rupture of thirty years' standing, by one of your incomparable Trusses, which I purchased from you three months ago. I cannot describe the suffering, both physically and mentally, that I have undergone during that period; and now I feel like a new being. I have worn all kinds of Trusses, both Steel and Elastic, and never received any permanent relief until I tried yours. Its simplicity of construction, and facility with which it can be adjusted, and the ease and perfect freedom to the motions of the body with which it can be worn without causing any irritation, are its chief merits, and it is a perfect supporter. I have not had any sign of a return of the rupture since the first day I put it on and feel that I am PERFECTLY CURED. It is invaluable, and the fact should be known to the world. You can refer anyone to me on the subject of its merits I am truly yours, ALFRED J. BURKE.

REMARKS:

I have this second day of June, 1879, sold the within named Sow to Mr. McTavish, of Victoria, B.C., and of all my imported swine of the Berkshires I have none I wish more success than "Roxy St. Bridge." Belonging to the Sallie family, she shows the form and style, and as a show animal will be found hard to beat at the Provincial Fairs. She is a Royal Berkshire and I wish her every success in her new home, and hope she will as a breeder prove as successful as the reputable family of which she is one.

Yours faithfully, ROLLIN P. SAXE,

THE POWER OF THE GOVERNMENT TO IMPOSE PENALTIES FOR NON-PAYMENT OF TAXES.

A Quebec Judge, Mr. Justice Johnson, has decided that interest, or any consideration representing it, cannot legally be charged on arrears of taxes.—Toronto Globe.

We published the substance of the above paragraph on Thursday, and took the position—as we have always done—that the SHYLOCKIAN rates of 25 and 18 per cent. imposed for arrears of taxation in this Province are illegal. The Government organ — which endorses and approves of the grasping propensities of its masters— in yesterday's issue asserted that no decision of the nature quoted was made; at least, that if made it applied to the power of Municipalities and not to that of Provincial Legislatures. If the reader will examine the extract we make above he will see that the decision is not confined to arrears of taxation due Municipalities. It refers to all "arrears of taxes," whether Municipal, Provincial or Federal. But did it refer to Municipalities, the contention of our contemporary would not hold good, because by a recent decision of the Supreme Court of Canada we find that the powers of a Provincial Government are "Municipal in their character and scope." What was it one of the Supreme Court Judges said about the use of Her Majesty's name in the titles of Provincial Acts? That the use was a piece of "impudent assumption," entirely illegal and might with as much propriety precede the By-laws of a petty Town Council as the Acts of a Provincial Legislature! This decision ruffled the dignity of coxcomb office-holders, who had greatly magnified their positions and were even supposed to arrogate to themselves the right to make treaties with foreign powers; but it was a wholesome thing, nevertheless, to remind Provincial officeholders who are accustomed to put on airs that they are not higher in the sight of the Canadian Constitution than a hogreeve or a bumbailiff. A wonderful breadth of intellect enables our contemporary to discover that because the collection of the penalty is authorized by an Act of the Local Legislature, which has received the sanction of the Dominion Government, therefore it must be legal. Our contemporary is evidently an optimist—whatever is is right with him; but if he will turn to the Franchise Act of the Province and compare it with the decision of Judge GRAY on the Chinese Tax Act he will see that the former is as unconstitutional as the latter; and yet the Franchise Act—which imposes a restriction that is repugnant to Imperial treaties and is therefore illegal, received the sanction of the Dominion Government as well as the Provincial Tax Act. The organ gloats over the fact that large sums of money have been scooped into the Treasury during the past few days under a threat to impose 25 and 18 per cent. additional as penalties, and rejoices to know that the "list of those who have been deluded by the pernicious teaching of The Colonist into omitting to pay up will prove to be very inconsiderable." Pray, how long is it since the Standard advised its readers to pay no taxes at all, and by its "pernicious teaching" induced several citizens unlearned in the law to refuse to meet the demands of the taxgatherer until the Government had distrained for the amounts due? No more than two years and a-half ago the Standard opposed taxation in any form or shape; now it is found approving not only of the general principle of taxation but congratulating the public on the collection of usurious interest as well. The Colonist has never refused to recognize the obligation of all citizens to contribute towards the support of the Government of the country under whose flag they enjoy protection of life and property and the blessing of free education. But we have warned them that when they pay illegal exactions they are submiting to tyranny. Submission to injustice is disloyalty, for as JUNIUS says, "the subject who is truly loyal will neither advise nor submit to arbitrary measures." We entertain no doubt that Mr. Justice JOHNSON of Quebec is right and that our Attorney General is again wrong. The power to levy on goods and realty for nonpayment of taxes is undisputable, but there exists no power under the Constitution to imposé a higher rate of taxation in case of delinquency, and we are glad to learn that some refrained from paying their taxes on the 30th ult. with the object of testing the legality of an Act which is a shameful outrage on the taxpayer.

THE CITY OF CHESTER.

Passengers who reach here by the steamship City of Chester invariably declaim against the vessel as the greatest "roller" and "pitcher" afloat. Her accomplishments in these respects are said to excel the City of Panama, and she was a terror to those who "went down to the sea" semi-occasionally. We are told that to escape sea-sickness on the City of Chester a man must have a stomach like an ostrich—the bird that is said to be able to swallow and retain a quart of castor oil undisguised and to grow fat on a diet composed of brass filings and iron spikes. The passenger list of the City of Chester is always light (albeit she is admirably officered and manned, and is staunch and well-found) for the reason that people grow sick at the stomach at the bare mention of a sea-voyage in her. The Dakota, on the other hand, carries most of the passengers, simply because she is equally well officered, manned and found, and enjoys the reputation of being a steady ship. It is said that the City of Chester was taken off the Portland-San Francisco route because no one who could help it would travel by a vessel which is so habitually polite as to make a profound obeisance to every wave that crosses her track. The contract of the Mail Company with the owners of the City of Chester will expire in the course of a few days and the interests of the company would certainly be subserved by the withdrawal of the obnoxious steamer and the substitution of a boat of steadier habits.

G. W. M. REYNOLDS.

G. W. M. REYNOLDS, the London journalist, whose death is announced, was an advanced radical at a time when there was some risk in the expression of extreme opinions in England. As a political writer he was opposed to constituted authority, denouncing church and state with equal fervor. In short, he was an atheist, and reviled all that men commonly held sacred. His attacks on the royal family were brutal. As a writer of fiction he was "sensational," appealing to the worst passions of his readers. "His "Mystery of the Court of London" is a sample; but the love tales in his Miscellany, to which his wife contributed, were of a decidedly immoral character. However, of late years many writers have traveled the same road to fame and fortune. Reynolds' Miscellany contained nothing broader than "OUIDA'S" novels. He attacked the late Liberator in his weekly newspaper with all the malevolence of his nature, and O'CONNELL retorted by denouncing him as the son of a celebrated Irish informer, who had earned more blood money from "the castle" than any other of the infamous wretches that betrayed their countrymen, at the close of the last century, to their English oppressors. REYNOLDS made an attempt to deny his paternity, and claimed to be the son of a captain in the British navy; but O'CONNELL stuck to his accusation, and the matter remained in doubt. It is impossible to point to a single act of the late writer's life, or to any product of his pen, which benefited or ennobled his fellow men.

The International Cricket Match.

The weather yesterday was anything but favorable for cricket. Rain commenced to fall at daybreak and continued, almost without intermission, until noon. The match, therefore, between the Portland eleven and the team selected to represent the Victoria Cricket Club could not conveniently be commenced at 10 o'clock, the hour fixed for wickets to be pitched. The elevens assembled in the morning at the Park Hotel, Beacon Hill, where the Portlanders are quartered, and whiled away the time as best they could until the elements condescended to become propitious. This occurred to a certain degree about 12 o'clock, when Mr. Bennett, captain of the Victoria eleven, and Mr. Andrews, captain of the Oregon team, tossed for choice of innings. Mr. Bennett won and elected to go to the bat first. After a brief delay Layton and Howard were sent in to represent the Victorians to the bowling of Maxwell from the upper wicket and Kinross from the lower. Play commenced at 12:20 P. M., Layton opening the scoring by placing the last ball of Maxwell's first over for one. Kinross made a bad commencement, bowling 4 wides in succession in his first over and being cut for 2 and played for 1 by Layton. The bowling, however, rapidly improved and maiden overs followed for some time. Layton next increased his score by getting Maxwell away to leg for 2 and placing him in the slips for a similar number. Howard got Kinross to leg for 2 and 1, but was soon afterwards bowled by Maxwell. One wicket down for 18 runs. Tye took the vacant wicket and hit Kinross to the off for a single. Layton added several to his account, but he was not destined to have Tye's company long as the latter was caught by Gilman at long off. Two wickets down for 23 runs. The next man in was Pooley, who soon hit Kinross to leg for 3. It was then 1 o'clock and the elevens adjourned for lunch, which was served at the Park Hotel. Play was resumed at 1:45 and very shortly afterwards Pooley was caught off Maxwell by Creighton at cover point, having made only 4. This brought the score to three wickets down for 32 runs and for a time the match looked more favorable for the Portlanders. Bennett, however, commenced to hit very freely—he always plays with a free bat—and rapidly compiled 20 runs. In the mean time Layton, although playing cautiously, had materially augmented the score, but had given a chance in the slips which was declined by Andrews. An over or two afterwards Bennett sent one back to Kinross who failed to hold it. Runs continued to come quickly, Bennett making several very good hits to leg but eventually being bowled by Maxwell for a very acceptable innings of 37. Four wickets down for 99 runs. Rome followed Bennett and continued the stand made with Layton, who was missed by Webb at long slip. A change of bowling was now deemed advisable and Paelen went on in place of Kinross at the lower wicket with the score at 126. Rome, who had been playing well, returned a ball to Maxwell, who made a good attempt to secure it, but it proved too hot. Kinross missed Layton at point off Maxwell, who now made way for Andrews at the upper wicket. The rain, which had held off since the commencement of the match, began to descend again and the fielding became somewhat loose. Rome, after putting together 13 in good style, placed a ball from Andrews into Creighton's hands at point and retired with the score at 134 for five wickets. Eberts followed, but had not stayed long when Layton was bowled by Andrews for a careful, although not faultless innings of 58. As he approached the scoring tent he was loudly applauded by the spectators, the number of whom had been considerably augmented by this time. Dawson joined Eberts with the score at 146, but after making a single was clean bowled by Andrews. Eberts was playing very well and had placed several balls very nicely in the slips. On Dawson receiving his quietus J. Wilson occupied the vacant wicket and Kinross was substituted for Paelen at the lower end. In his second over after the change he dismissed Eberts who had contributed 18, and with the score at 163 Drake went in. Wilson, after making a couple and two singles, drove Kinross for 3, but was soon afterwards bowled by Andrews. Jones, the last man to go in, in company with Drake made a considerable stand and kept the field busy for some time. He was eventually bowled by Kinross for 9, and Drake had the honor of carrying his bat out for just a dozen. The innings concluded for a total of 199, of which no less than 36 were extras, including 25 wides. After a short delay the innings of the Portland team commenced, Creighton and Molson going to the wickets to the bowling of Pooley at the upper end and Eberts at the lower. After seven overs had been bowled a change was made, Eberts bowling slow under-hand from the upper end. The change resulted beneficially to the Victorians as Molson, after making a single, placed one of the slows into Howard's hands at short leg. Gilman took Molson's place but speedily fell a victim to Eberts' "lobs" without contributing to the score. Two wickets were now down for 5 runs and apprehensions began to be felt for the Oregonians. Crocker, who it was understood was one of their best bats, then went in, and opened his account with 2 off Eberts, but was almost immediately afterwards thrown out by Wilson. Three wickets down and only 10 runs made. When Kinross, however, took his place at the wicket relinquished by Crocker it was thought probable he would reverse the condition of affairs and there were apparently good grounds for the expectation. Creighton having made a single to leg off Bennett, the slows were taken off and Pooley's round-hand was substituted at the upper end. This seemed to suit Kinross for he drove the last ball of the first over for 4—one of the best hits of the day—and in rapid succession compiled 13, most of which were off Pooley. At this stage he was badly missed by Dawson at long on, but the next ball Creighton gave Bennett a chance at point which he accepted amidst the applause of the spectators. Creighton had made 5 and, with the score standing at four wickets down for 30, Kinross was joined by Maxwell, who commenced with a hit to leg for 2 off Pooley. His life, however, was very short as before he had increased his score he put one up to long off which was beautifully taken by Eberts who had to run a long distance to secure it. The catch was heartily and deservedly applauded Andrews, the Captain of the visiting team, was the next man in, and he had been at the wickets only a very short time when Kinross made the hit of the day, getting a ball from Pooley clear away to square leg for 6. The hit was the signal for renewed applause, but a minute later Pooley had "sweet revenge" by taking Kinross' centre stump clean out of the ground. Kinross played a lively and useful innings for 21. Six wickets were now down for 41, and at 6:30 p. m. time was called. Appended will be found the score:

Jas. Meadows, was charged with supplying intoxicating liquor to Indians. County Court.

[Before Hon. A. F. Pemberton.]

FRIDAY, July 4.

Fraser vs. H. King—

Mr. Theo. Davie applied for leave to put certain interrogatories to the defendants in this cause and quoted several authorities in support of his motion.

Mr. Courtney for the defence objected on the ground that it would put his clients to extra expense which he said was altogether unnecessary as the case was to come up on Tuesday next, also that as 10 days' notice would be required the order could not be made; he also contended that the Court had no power to issue such order, and asked His Honor to dismiss the application with costs.

Mr. Theo. Davie, in support of his application, explained that his object was to save expense inasmuch as defendant stated that he had a receipt, which he refused show, and the production of which might stop the case.

His Honor ordered Mr. Davie to leave the authorities on points of law involved in the case with him and said he would give his decision on Monday.

THE steamer W. G. Hunt left her wharf at 7.30 a.m. yesterday with the following passengers:—Mrs. Irving, Miss Smith, Miss S. Jeffrey, Mrs. Gilmore and children, Mrs. McMillan and children, and Messrs. McMillan, Sterling, Hawkes, Dunlevy, J. M. Ferris, A. K. Erskine, J. Jeffrey, J. W. Thompson, B. Bolt and several others.

THE WHOLE FAMILY IN GAOL.—Mrs. Smith, wife of Dr. Smith, the Oregon counterfeiter, has been taken into custody for complicity in her husband's crime. Father, mother and daughter are all in jail; the daughter on conviction and the parents by confession. The girl is only a stepdaughter of the doctor's.

B. C. MILITIA.—The Canada Gazette announces the promotion of Lieutenant Everard H. Fletcher to be Captain of Company No. 2, Victoria Rifles, vice J.G. Vinter, deceased; and the promotion of Sergeant Rowland E. Green to be lieutenant, vice Fletcher promoted.

A Grocer's Trick.

[St. Paul Pioneer Press.]

This happened long ago—in the early days of Minneapolis—and is related to show that even in those days the grocer was "up to snuff." A certain well known individual, now a resident of St. Cloud, was dealing in groceries in Minneapolis then, and told the story himself the other day, as follows;

"I happened to strike four chests of tea which I bought at a bargain—25 cents a pound. These four chests of tea were all I had, and as my customers expected a variety of prices I accommodated them. I turned the tell-tale side of the chests toward the wall and marked the tea to suit my customers. Deacon ——, still a resident of the city, came in one day after some tea, and wanted a good article. I gave him a sample from each of the four chests to take home and try, stating their respective prices as 35, 50, 75 cents and a dollar a pound. Well, after testing the samples he returned and rendered his decision as follows:

"That 35 cent tea is a very fair article for the price; the 50 cent tea is very excellent, and the dollar tea is a very superior article, I can assure you. But I can't go quite that figure. Let me have ten pounds of that 75 cent tea."

He was accommodated. How grocers have changed since then!

A LOVER'S VOW.—"Just droop a note," wrote a York young gentleman, "not much addicted to wrighting," to an Abigail in Birmingham, on the 29th ult., "to inform me if you are engaged, and if not, if you think you could fancy a Bricklayer for your future husband, for if, you know, love, if you were my wife you should ride in all the railways in england and ware you silks and satins, and have a sofa to sit on, and cushion for your feet, and drink shilling tea all the days of your life. Perhaps you might get a richer but never a better, you can take that for grantage; know I hope you will deal fairly with me, as I am in earnest love; you sweet composset lovely Aplicot, you are sweet composed lovely rose, the sweetest flower that ever grew in York. CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—The Grand Jury reported to-day. They are very severe on the question of the Dupont street frauds and animadvert strongly on the action of Wm. M. Pierson, attorney of the Commission, who while State Senator exerted himself to procure the passage of the Act establishing the Commission and then accepted the appointment of attorney. The manner in which the work of the Commission was conducted is strongly condemned and Mayor Bryant as president is accused of astonishing, almost criminal, negligence in signing the fraudulent warrants. The report intimates that nothing saved the Mayor from indictment but legal advice to the effect that it could not be made to stick.

OREGON.

ALBANY, Ogn., July 3.—At twelve o'clock last night a fire broke out in Luttrell's butcher shop at Lebanon and before the flames could be extinguished three buildings were burned. They were occupied by Luttrell's butcher shop, Gilmour & Bercaw's saloon, the post-office and Chas. Harmon's barber shop. The buildings were owned by S. Luttrell and S. H. Claughton, and were insured. The fire was the work of an incendiary.

English Mail.

[Per Steamship Dakota.]

London, June 19.—The Times, apropos of the speech by Sir Stafford Northcote last night at the banquet, which discusses the questions now engaging the Government's attention from the view of a probable early dissolution of Parliament, says it is obvious that on all sides there are indications of the approach of a great electoral struggle. The great questions of foreign policy which have occupied the mind of the country for the last few years are rapidly approaching asolution. When the time comes for the English people to say how the Ministers have discharged their trust they will not fail to bear in mind the difficulties the Government had to encounter, as well as their method of dealing with them. It is premature to form a final judgment of the whole case, but it is also evident from this speech that the Ministry feel the moment for pronouncing such a judgment is not far off.

The centenary of the Derby was celebrated this year in the presence of an immense concourse, royalty being represented by the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh, the Duke and Duchess of Teck and the Crown Prince of Denmark. The weather proved much pleasanter than was anticipated, and the field of competitors for the blue riband larger than was expected. The race was chiefly noticeable for the slow pace at which it was run and the overthrow of the favorites.

Another of those cases in which the marriage of a Frenchman with an Englishwoman, made in perfect good faith on the side of the latter, has been annulled by a French Court renders a renewal warning necessary. A young Frenchman staying in London for a year fell in love with and married his landlady's daughter. On his return home his family persuaded him into the dishonorable course of repudiating the marriage and branded the child resulting therefrom as illegitimate.

It is estimated that the remission of rent which has been granted by the Duke of Bedford to his tenants represents in the aggregate $350,000.

Mr. Alfred Illingworth has accepted the invitation of the Bradford Liberal Three Hundred to contest the representation of the borough at the next election, in conjunction with W. E. Forster.

ODESSA, June 19.—Numerous arrests were made at daybreak on the 13th, including students, professors and municipal employés. Thirty-six prisoners have been sent to Archangel. They are not aware of any offence except that they are Liberals.

During the excitement attending the remarks of M. de Cassagnac yesterday, several fights occurred at the foot of the tribune between Bonapartists and members of the Extreme Left, but the ushers separated the combatants before much damage was done.

Several Nihilists have been extradited from Germany by order of the Government.

LONDON, June 17.—There were numerous exciting scenes in the House of Commons last night, owing to the Irish members adroitly using their obstructive tactics in delaying the voting on estimates. Messrs. Parnell, O'Donnell, Sullivan and Power were repeatedly called to order by the Speaker.

A glance at the advertising columns of the Glasgow newspapers tells more plainly than language the depth of misery that has been created by the bank failure. The Herald has had to issue supplements to accommodate its advertising in the department of auction sales of household furniture; and the columns of the Mail, News, Citizen and Times are crowded by the same class of advertisements. They are the epitaphs on household graves, in which lie buried all of comfort that many will have known when they have travelled into the beyond.

After being on strike nearly eighteen months, the bellringers of Lancaester Church, Consett, have returned to their posts. Prior to strike the bellringers, six in number, had free access to the belfry, where they occasionally, it was alleged, indulged in a game of cards. The result was that the belfry door was locked, and the key could only be obtained on application. The men struck work, and have remained on strike until last week, when their detractor, a parishoner, having left the district, they have once more taken possession of the belfry.

WINNIPEG, Man., June 18.—Mrs. James McDougal committed suicide by shooting herself at Little Saskatchewan on Wednesday last while en route with her husband to her new home. The rash act was committed in the morning while her husband was outside washing himself. She was twenty years of age, and had been only married a month. An inquest was held and a verdict of temporary insanity returned. It is believed to have been the result of home sickness.

SACKVILLE, June 19.—About 10:30 last night, while Israel Atkinson was on his way home from a friend's house, he was shot from the roadside by a man who then ran off. About forty shot penetrated Atkinson's body, and several shot entered his lungs. The wounded man dragged himself to Dr. Fleming's office, where his wounds were attended to. He is now in a critical condition. The would-be assassin is unknown.

A FEROCIOUS DOG.

The Doings of an Animal that was Stolen from Lord Dufferin.

A bulldog that was stolen from Lord Dufferin in Canada, a year ago, turned up lately in Terre Haute, where she killed a Texas steer in a street fight. Col. Burns, of Evansville, bought her for $110, and fastened her in his stable. The Evansville Journal of last Wednesday said:—"Yesterday, while the Colonel was leading a horse worth $1,000 past the dog, she leaped towards the horse with such tremendous force that the collar snapped like a string. She buried her teeth in the horse's flesh. Col. Burns seized the dog by the throat with both hands, and hurling her back, threw himself upon her as she fell. She tore his shirt into threads. At last, with his heavy boot heel he planted a blow on the forehead which stunned the beast. The Journal of Thursday said:—"Col. Burns was sitting on horseback at his front gate yesterday morning, when the spotted bulldog dashed out the side gate, having snapped the cast-iron chain. He whipped his horse into a gallop and followed. Capt. App, of the police, was coming down the street in his barouche when the dog dashed toward his horse and made a leap at his throat. The horse shied to escape the danger, overthrowing the barouche, and hurling Capt. App against a shade tree with such force as to dislocate the right elbow. On Parrett street the furious dog met a lad and seized him by the collar of his coat. Both rolled off the walk and down the embankment. Col. Burns attacked the dog with the butt of a heavy whip and knocked him senseless. The horse ran away during the fight and has not been recovered. The dog was hauled home still senseless." The Journal of Friday said:—"Marshal Langolf went to the stable to see the dog yesterday. She lazily yawned and pretended to fawn, while her great red chops, hanging down, were opened and closed indolently. Langolf went to pat her head gently, when she leaped at his throat. The stout trace held her back, though her paws caught in the Marshal's vest and brought him down to his knees. He drew his revolver and put two bullets through her head. With a few struggles the ferocious beast died."

Something Wonderful!

What sublime flights of imagination we meet with while prrusing the mythical and legendary lore of ancient Greece, where the gods reposed in ethereal bowers of Elysian bliss and sipped nectar from the golden fountains:

A Clown's Burial.

A clown was buried at Finchley, England, a few Sundays ago, according to his directions. First in funeral procession rode the ringleader, leading four dames de la cirque in costume. These ladies were followed by the bounding brothers, the sword swallowers, the saltimbangues, the barebacked riders, and other male performers. Then came a dwarf, carrying a black flag, and after him came the Barbary ape, Jacko, on a Shetland pony. Jacko was in a suit of sables, and his steed was also dressed in the trappings and the suits of woe. The coffin was borne on an open bier, and on the plate, where the royal coronet should be, were the motley garments of the clown. Two clown colleagues followed the hearse, but if they filled the position of chief mourners, their garb was certainly not in keeping with their place, for they were chalked, ochred and dressed in their clown's clothes as if for performance. The strange cavalcade was wound up by part of the circus band in one of the gaudy professional carriages. They played such airs as "Go Where Glory Waits Thee," "Down Among the Dead Men," "In Some Far Sultry Clime," and other morceaux selected by their deceased comrade. At the cemetery the last remains of Billy Walton were laid in the grave, and when the daisy quilt was snugly spread over him each of his brother clowns turned a somersault over his resting place, and with that the remarkable interment concluded.

Miscellaneous.

Extraordinary finds of gold have lately occurred in the gold-fields of Dutch and French Guiana, and are causing great excitement.

A French widow is bewailing the recent loss of her husband. "I have at least one consolation," she sobs out, drying her tears. "At all events, I know where he spends his nights now."

"Do you see that stick, sir?" said a very stupid acquaintance to Sidney Smith. "This stick has been all round the world, sir." "Indeed?" said the remorseless Sydney. "And yet it is nothing but a stick."

A new grass, Reana luxurians, has been imported into Ceylon from Java, and is stated to be doing well, having attained a height of eight feet in three months. It is said to contain a large amount of saccharine matter, and cattle and horses eat it freely.

Of eleven female candidates who presented themselves for the first examination for the degrees of Oxford University, six were placed in the division of honours, four were declared to be entitled to exhibitions, and one was second in the whole list of candidates. There were only two failures.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S
(Ex Army Medical Staff.)
CHLORODYNE
IS THE ORGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July, 12, 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousand of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests those too often fatal diseases—diphtheria, fever, croup, ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in diarrhœa, and is the only specific in cholera and dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of epilepsy, hysteria, palpitations and spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in neuralgia, rheumatism, gout, cancer, toothache, meningitis, &c.

EXTRACTS FROM MEDICAL OPINIONS.

The Right Hon. Earl Russell communicated to the College of Physicians and J. T. Davenport, that he had received information to the effect that the only remedy of any service in Cholera was CHLORODYNE.—See Lancet, Dec. 31, 1864.

From A. Montgomery, Esq., late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay.—"CHLORODYNE is a most valuable remedy in Neuralgia, Asthma, and Dysentery. To it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months' severe suffering, and when other remedies had failed."

Dr. Lowe, Medical Missionary in India, reports [December, 1865] that in nearly every case of Cholera in which Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE was administered, the patient recovered.

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera.—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy, that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

See leading article, Pharmaceutical Journal, Aug. 1, 1869, which states that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the inventor of Chlorodyne; that it is always righ to use his preparation when Chlorodyne is ordered.

CAUTION.—None genuine without the words "Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE" on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

Sole Manufacturer, J. T. DAVENPORT, 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London.

Sold in bottles at 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9., 4s 6d. and 11s.
